Neither Miss Yoshita Patwardhan, the applicant nor her Lawyer Mr. Navjot Yesu appeared today also. On the last occasion also they were not present but of course an email was sent by Mr. Navjot Yesu stating therein that he is not in Patna, but he did not take trouble to sought for adjournment but even then in their absence after hearing the Respondents Lawyer matter was adjourned for hearing fixing today.

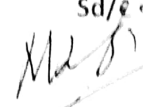

Today, the learned Lawyers for Respondent Mr. Prashant Sinha for Respondent No. 1, Mr. Rajesh Kumar Singh for Respondent No. 5 and Mr. Ramendra Kumar Bharti for Respondent No. 6 appeared and they insisted to hear the matter, they pleaded their case before me submitted that the present case is beyond jurisdiction and thus not maintainable and the Applicant is not interested in disposal of the case.

Respondent No. 1, 5 & 6 have vehemently submitted that as Mr. Amit Kumar, the then Secretary of BCA whose power has already been seized from before, even then, the copy of the Applications was served to him and he was heard and obtained the order by adopting collusive means by suppressing the fact that his power has been seized already from before and he in connivance with the Applicant's succeeded in playing his ill design by mis-representing himself, in collusion with the Applicant and thereby obtaining the interim order dated 23.01.2023 in her favour.

Since, the applicant named above, as it appears, is not interested in prosecution of this case and one Amit Kumar (Respondent No. 2) who is not accepting the authority of this Court i.e. why his sending emails challenging my authority.

As, it appears to me, the Applicant is not interested in prosecuting the matter rather adopting delaying tactic in disposal of the case to suit her ill purpose. In the result, this application is dismissed for non-prosecution of the Applicant and interim order dated 23.01.2023 passed by the then Ethics Officer, is hereby, revoked.
